Advanced Youth Intervention Techniques for Professionals

Presented by Danny Holland

Danny Holland

Danny Holland has studied youth culture professionally for nearly two decades, traveling across the nation and world, talking to thousands of teenagers and training those who work with them. Danny has spoken to more than 700,000 people including law enforcement officers, school counselors and administrators. His presentations on youth culture, media influence, teen violence and drug use have been adopted by some of the nation's top law enforcement training organizations. Additionally his presentations have been endorsed by professionals from diversified backgrounds, including members of Congress, school administrators, and even the president of a national parenting group.

Danny is an internationally sought after speaker and author. He has presented at various conferences including the DARE America National Conference, Utah State Gang Conference, the Youth Specialties National Conference, ACSI Educator Conferences and Virginia Community and Residential Care Association Conference. Danny has published "Reaching Teens In Their Natural Habitat" and "You Are Here: A Straight Shooting Guide to Mapping Your Future."

Danny is the former Executive Director of True Lies and the Founder of Parent & Teen Universities, Inc. (Families-International.org). For more information about Danny, visit www.DannyHolland.com.
